

Bill "Doc E" Edwards is a founding member of KATS and served as the original treasurer for the society. He continues to enjoy a lengthy career at the helm of the WKU Athletic Training Program. A veteran of both the Ohio Valley and Sun Belt Conferences, Edwards was named Head Athletic Trainer at Western Kentucky University in August of 1983 after having served as an assistant Athletic Trainer for six years prior. Edwards is also a two time graduate of WKU, earning a bachelor's degree in 1974 in Physical Education and a master's degree in Exercise Science in 1976.

In his role as Director of Athletic Training, Edwards coordinates a large group of Sports Medicine specialists that have been attracted to WKU not only by him and his staff, but by the outstanding reputation that its athletic programs enjoy as well. Edwards utilizes these health care professionals to ensure appropriate, quick, and state-of-the-art athletic health care for WKU athletes. In addition to his daily Athletic Training duties, Edwards also serves as an instructor in the Department of Kinesiology, Recreation and Sport at WKU.

"Doc E" resides in Bowling Green with his wife Jennie and their two daughters, Faith and Rachel.
