

Tom Steltenkamp has been providing valuable medical and training assistance to ensure the health and safety of athletes throughout the Louisville Metro area since 1985. He is a graduate of Ft. Thomas Highlands High School and the University of Louisville. He has been the Director of Athletic Training Services for the Dr. Rudy J. Ellis Sports Medicine Center since 1985 and Administrator for Ellis & Badenhause Orthopaedics, PSC since 1999. Tom has helped provide sports medicine and athletic training coverage for Jefferson County athletes and medical coverage for all KHSAA Championships that are held in Jefferson County since 1985. He is the former Co-director of the KMA/KHSAA Annual Coaches Medical Symposium. He currently serves on the SEATA Awards and Hall of Fame Committee. He has been past president, vice-president and secretary for the Kentucky Athletic Trainers Society.

He has received the following awards:

- 1995 - Kentucky High School Athletic Directors Association – Dr. Rudy J. Ellis Distinguished Service Award
- 2000 - Southeastern Athletic Trainers Association – Clinical Athletic Trainer of the Year
- 2004 - Metro Athletic Directors – Hall of Fame
- 2005 - Kentucky Athletic Trainers Society – Award of Merit
- 2006 - Mason-Dixon Games – Hall of Fame
- 2006 - Dawahares Kentucky High School Athletic Association – Hall of Fame
- 2007 - Kentucky Athletic Trainers Society – Hall of Fame
- 2007 - Kentucky Derby Festival – Volunteer of the Year
- 2012 - Greater Louisville Football Coaches Association – Legend/Hall of Fame